IN BRIEF

Situated in the beautiful Hérault valley, the renowned Domaine de Lavagnac, nicknamed the "Little Versailles of Languedoc", home to a magnificent 18 century chateau and 192 hectares of stunning parklands is being transformed into a magnificent development of contemporary villas situated around an 18 hole Nicklaus Design golf course, together with a luxury hotel in the restored chateau complete with spa, gastronomique restaurant, brasserie and boutiques. This is not just a beautiful home on offer but a whole lifestyle in a unique and exceptional setting.

DESCRIPTION

The extensive collection of villas on offer are being sold off plan and are the epitome of contemporary design, maximising the light and views over the estate. There are different ranges of villas, prices and styles on offer. I invite you to contact me for more information on the full collection, the golf course, the estate and this beautiful area. We can also welcome you at the Domaine to view a show house and discuss your individual project.

This stunning villa Imago I is situated in the Golfer's Hamlet and offers 127,4m² of living space with a beautiful bright living room opening out on to a large terrace and private garden. Also on the ground floor is a kitchen, bedroom with ensuite bathroom and a separate wc. Upstairs are 2 large bedrooms, a bathroom, wc and a terrace. The hamlet benefits from a communal natural swimming pool. This is just one of several styles of villas in the golf hamlets as well as individual villas with private pools in the Prestige and Luxury collections at a full range of prices. It is also possible to buy a plot of land to build your own project whilst benefitting from all the Domaine has to offer.

This exceptional project with its collection of villas will be delivered at the end of the 4rd quarter 2024.
