NOTES

THE AREA:

The town of St. Laurent-du-Var, where this development is currently being constructed, neighbours the city of Nice on its western border. The Nice international airport, the beaches of Nice as well as CAP 3000, the biggest and most popular shopping mall of the Côte d'Azur, are all a 10 minutes drive away from the strategic location of this new development. In the winter, the ski resorts in the mountains can be reached in 45 mins.

THE DEVELOPMENT:

The development is situated along the coastline, providing stunning sea views. The development will consist of residential apartments, commercial spaces, and a public park. The residential apartments will be housed in six buildings, ranging from three to seven floors, and will...
