DESCRIPTION

The "Libé", as the people of Nice like to call it, is a historic, authentic and lively district that, until the early 2000s, was best known for its wonderful open-air market.

It was in 2012 that the real metamorphosis took place with the reconstruction of the hall of the Gare du Sud identical to its first design in 1892, the eponymous real estate program and the most beautiful cinematographic duplex in the city.

This new residential area has revived the Liberation by bringing many shops and restaurants.
