DESCRIPTION

The property is located in a very quiet hamlet with just a few inhabitants, mostly non-residential. It is connected to the mains drains. Heating by a nice fireplace in the living room and by electric heaters. The roof was redone in 2008.

There is a possibility to buy the furniture with it.

The property is nestled amidst nature, which makes it an ideal location for outdoor enthusiasts. You can go for a hike or a bike ride along the nearby trails and discover the stunning scenery of the Luberon with its lavender fields, ochre quarries, vineyards and pretty villages. If you prefer to explore the local villages, there are plenty of them within a short drive, including the picturesque Villars, which is just a stone's throw away.

The village of Villars is one of the prettiest and unspoiled typical French villages, located on top of a little hill, with a beautiful central square under high plane trees, where the locals meet up for the latest gossips.

The baker of Villars still bakes his delicious bread in a woodfired oven. Further there is a post office, a town hall, a primary school, the famous Bar des Amis (a must see) and several restaurants.

The town of Apt is just 10 minutes drive away and it has all kind of shops, schools, supermarkets, a hospital, busconnections, restaurant and a famous Provençal market on Saturday mornings.

The TGV of Avignon is about 1h15 drive away and the Airport of Marseille about 1h30 drive...
