IN BRIEF

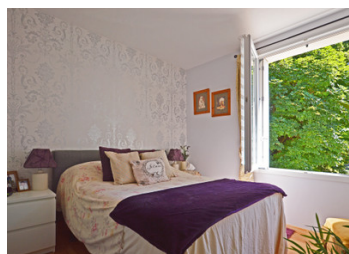

A secluded 1950's house of pleasing proportions and has a mild 1930's art deco feel and has been restored to the very highest standard in a stunning riverside position that is not overlooked yet at the edge of a village and walking distance to local shops. There is no record of the property being flooded due to the flood plain being on the opposite lower river bank that remains non buildable pasture. An extremely rare property of minimal maintenance with a beautiful garden that descends to the water's edge.
