DESCRIPTION

The village of Sciez has a thriving community with a variety of bars and shops, schools, supermarkets, hairdressers, post office, pharmacy, a football and tennis club, a sailing club, a horse riding school and various other amenities and activities on offer. The port has its own public beach where you can rent pedalos, paddle boards, and windsurfing equipment plus a selection of bars and restaurants where you can sit and enjoy a glass of wine and a meal whilst watching the world go by on the lake.

In winter, the vast ski domain of the Portes du Soleil (main resorts of Morzine, Les Gets and Chatel), are very accessible and the international city of Geneva and airport are 28km away.
