IN BRIEF

On the edge of the village of Olargues, in our superb Vallée du Jaur, in a peaceful setting with lush green views, this 2003 villa is ready to welcome a family. It offers all the comforts you could wish for: approx. 215 m² of living space, with the main part on one level, featuring a large kitchen area opening onto a living room with plenty of natural light thanks to its bay window and windows, a dining terrace, 3 spacious bedrooms with built-in closets, a bathroom with shower and bathtub, and separate wc. The garden level offers a large space for entertaining family and friends. The garden area comprises a hidden space around the swimming pool (10m x 5m) with terrace and shelter for a summer kitchen with barbecue, and a green space towards the entrance to the house that gives an impression of immensity! Perfect for those looking...

Olargues is one of the nicest medieval villages in the Hérault back country with its spectacular mountains above and meandering river below, and is the ideal location for lovers of nature, hiking, outdoor life and canoeing. Only 1 hour from Béziers and 1 and a half hours from Montpellier, there is surely no better place for a holiday in the South of France or even to life for those who are lucky enough.
