DESCRIPTION

The accommodation is on 3 different floors:

GROUND FLOOR

The entrance door leads into the hallway where there is a wood store, septic tank and water heater.

A door leads into a lovely large room with an original marble floor, a working open fireplace and bread oven and a view of the river. This would make a perfect games room and/or office. There is a door into a cupboard that goes under the staircase.

There are three double glazed windows and an electric radiator.

The beautiful new staircase winds up from the ground floor right up to the second floor

FIRST FLOOR

The staircase opens directly into the large, bright living area (lounge and dining room).

This spacious room has a tiled floor, wooden ceiling with exposed beams, 3 double glazed windows and a door out on to the wooden balcony overlooking the river. You can sit on your own balcony and fish for trout in the Garonne.

There is a WC at the end of the balcony with wash basin and radiator.

The kitchen has lots of space, the same floor tiles as the living room, an electric radiator, a window overlooking the river, bright tiled walls, fitted wall and base units and is fully equipped with everything you need (hob, extractor hood, oven, dishwasher, fridge/freezer, micro-wave, washing machine).
