DESCRIPTION

Welcome to this lovely and recently fully renovated modern single-storey home in Provence.

This cozy yet modern house, built in 1981, consists of a large living room with connecting and sunny veranda, a bright open plan kitchen with a large dining area, two bedrooms, two shower rooms, an office area and a large basement. This used to be a three bedroom house that was turned into a two-bed and can easily be converted back to into a three bedroom house. There is also an additional space for a fourth bedroom or an independent studio apartment.

Efficient and energy saving heating system based on gas.

There are beautiful views everywhere. The garden is on flat terrain, well-kept and fenced, suitable for both children and animals.

If wanted, there is a possibility to have a pool. The garden has access to water.

The Provencal town of Sisteron is famous and popular among tourists for it's beautiful and historic center.

In the outskirts of this lovely town you'll find this property, situated in a calm residential area.

Alpes-de-Haute-Provence is a region famous for its lavender production at the Valensole plateau, for its Gorges du Verdon (the European equivalent of Grand Canyon), its clean air, breath-taking views and beautiful countryside, where families with children, walkers, hikers can enjoy the outside.

The region is perfectly situated between the Mediterranean Sea and family-friendly ski slopes, between one or one and a half hour away.
