DESCRIPTION

The main entrance door opens onto a corridor with wooden staircase leading to first floor, access to the basement/garage and a downstairs wc. The corridor leads into the kitchen, with view over the back garden. The back kitchen houses even more cupboard space and has door leading out to the delightful back garden.

At the front of the ground floor is the large living area 21.8m² with 2 patio doors overlooking the pretty front garden. With a chimney perfect for a wood burning stove, space for a dining room table and inbuilt cupboard space this could be a superb family room. Leading from this room is a small downstairs bedroom with its own shower and sink. Designed specifically for the previous owners needs this could be re-designed to increase the living space downstairs or perhaps re-integrated into the living room.

NOTES

Upstairs a central corridor has a storage cupboard and airing cupboard. The bathroom overlooks the back garden and has a bath.
