DESCRIPTION

This charming one bedroom cottage is full of original character features and sits in a hamlet close to the lovely little town of Bossay sur Claise in the south of the Indre et Loire, which has a bakery and regular market and is only a few minutes from Preuilly sur Claise which has most amenities including a bar, bakery, bank etc.

It consists of a large living room with an open fireplace and bread oven, a flagstone floor and exposed wooden beams. Next comes another large room, currently used as a bedroom, though you might want to change that as currently there isn't a kitchen, that or you could add a corner kitchen to the living room. There is another room off the current bedroom with an old manger built into the wall, white painted beams and hand made floor tiles, which could also be used as a bedroom and has the bathroom directly off it, so would then be an ensuite bathroom.

The property also comes with a large barn, which looks ripe for conversion, should permission be obtained and a garage, each with a footprint of around 80m², and also a courtyard garden area.

Access will need to be created/ discussed as the property currently forms part of another and will be divided for the sale.
