IN BRIEF

Located in the heart of Thénezay within easy walking distance of all key amenities, this property has the potential to be a spacious family home with additional accommodation for rental income. Poitiers with its tourist attractions, international airport and TGV railway station is about 40 minutes away by car. The main house is accessed through a fully enclosed passage leading from the front of the building into a small but practical courtyard/garden at the rear. The apartment is divided between the first and second floors with its own entrance. Details of accommodation as follows:
