NOTES

DESCRIPTION

This is a rare opportunity to acquire a very successful holiday letting property with many options for owners accommodation and letting units. The property is offered in good condition and ready to let. The current owner has many repeat bookings and the income is in excess of 100000€,per annum. The success of this property is due in part to the flexibility of accommodation and the ability to take large group bookings both from international clients and large groups from Paris. With its significant grounds (approximately 6 acres) it could offer the possibility of medium sized weddings in partnership with the local marquee hire and catering companies.

The Accommodation is arranged as follows:
