IN BRIEF

Set in the heart of a truly magical hilltop village, this character property enjoys exceptional panoramic views across the surrounding countryside. Full of atmosphere and history, it offers generous and versatile accommodation with numerous sleeping areas, making it ideal as a family home, spacious holiday property or retreat house. The enclosed garden is a particular delight — private, charming and full of character, with space to relax, dine and enjoy the peaceful setting. While the exterior suggests a property ready for further enhancement, the interior offers more comfort and usability than one might expect, presenting an exciting opportunity to create something very special over time. Situated close to Plum Village, this is a rare chance to acquire an atmospheric home in an exceptional location, suited to those seeking tranquillity, inspiration or income potential.
