IN BRIEF

An amazing opportunity to purchase a very successful turn key business and the buildings
In addition to the business, this sale also includes a 3 bedroom main house, and an adjoining gîte. Currently running as an Irish style bar/restaurant situated in a prime position for passing trade on the outskirts of a national park, it is just 7km to a large market town with all amenities, a train station and a weekly market. This bar is popular with all nationalities whether they be locals or tourists. The restaurant does 30 covers inside and 30 covers in the garden. The property also has a three bedroom family house and an adjoining gîte, great for rentals.

DESCRIPTION

A super opportunity to purchase this up and running successful Irish style bar/restaurant. There is a three bed owners house and an adjoining apartment for rentals. The property has been fully renovated with taste by the present vendors, they have built up the business from scratch and it is with a heavy heart that they are now selling. It is a busy pub/restaurant which has received new and returning clients. The turnover can be improved massively; depending on what plans you had for the pub/restaurant. The vendor would be prepared to give on-site training to the new owner if required.

The restaurant area has 30 covers, the total number of covers can be exceeded in the summer months when Clients can use the large garden terrace.

Included in the sale:-
