NOTES

DESCRIPTION

OVERVIEW:

Built in the early 1990s by its current owners, this charming Provençal villa is located in a green and peaceful setting on a hillside between the new town of Carros and its historic medieval village.

The property offers 164 m² of habitable living space, complemented by approximately 25 m² of convertible workshop and utility space.

Benefiting from an ideal south-facing exposure, the house enjoys abundant natural light throughout the day and open, unobstructed views over the surrounding mountains and greenery.

The grounds span approximately 4,000 m², combining a landscaped garden area around the heated swimming pool with a natural wooded slope providing absolute privacy and authentic Comfort is ensured by electric underfloor heating in the main living room, electric radiators, and reversible air conditioning units in both the main living area and the lower level. Thanks to the exceptional quality of its construction and insulation, the property has an almost perfect energy performance certificate (DPE rated B/A) despite its age, thereby significantly optimising its running costs.

A functional fireplace in the living room adds a warm ambiance during the winter months. A standout asset of this property is its exceptional layout versatility. With two direct garden accesses, the lower level can easily serve as an independent guest apartment, making the property an outstanding opportunity for a bed & breakfast or multi-generational family home in this popular Côte d'Azur destination. Ample private parking for multiple vehicles is available on the property.
