IN BRIEF

This lovely stone house is in need of a total renovation. Currently in an uninhabitable state, but the potential is obvious. The accommodation consists of 4 rooms, a kitchen and a bathroom. Possibility to convert the loft space.

Nestled in a quiet hamlet, a few minutes' drive from a small village that offers all the necessary services of daily life. The town of Bellac is within easy reach (14 km) offering all amenities and services and the added advantage of a train station linking you with Limoges and Poitiers. The historic city of Limoges and its airport is only 49 km away.
