DESCRIPTION

This impressive character property offers exceptional space, five generous bedrooms and superb reception rooms, making it ideal as a large family home or an elegant second residence.

One of the house's most remarkable features is its magnificent spiral staircase, crafted to an exceptional standard and undoubtedly one of the finest examples in the region.

The ground floor offers a spacious living room, large dining room, kitchen and bright conservatory opening towards the garden, as well as a bathroom and WC. Upstairs are five spacious bedrooms, additional bathrooms, storage areas and a substantial attic offering further potential.

Beneath the house are two impressive vaulted cellars, together covering approximately the same area as the entire ground floor.

Outside, the attractive walled garden provides a peaceful and private setting despite the central location. Ruffec is a lively town with shops, restaurants and services, as well as excellent road and rail connections towards Paris and Bordeaux.
