IN BRIEF

This spacious 2 bedroom property would make an ideal permanent home or a perfect 'lock up and leave' holiday home. The current owner has made great improvements to the property by installing double glazing throughout and a new shower room., as well as decorating throughout. The property has also benefited from a recent, complete re-wire. The accommodation is spacious and provides on the ground floor a large, open plan kitchen/dining room/sitting room, as well as another separate room, which could be used as an office. Upstairs are 2 good sized double bedrooms, as well as the newly installed shower room.

Situated in the middle of the village, the property is within walking distance of a local amenities, whilst larger commerce can be found in the lovely market town of Pleyben. With the Montagnes Noires to the south,...
