NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Upon entering this home, you'll be welcomed into the sun-filled living area, featuring high ceilings and a cosy wood-burning stove. There is a beautiful original staircase leading to the first floor. The living room leads directly to the kitchen where you'll be awe-inspired by the dazzling floor tiles used throughout many of the homes in this part of France, dating back to the mid 19th century. The kitchen is fully equipped with appliances for convenience. The best part is this sensational kitchen leads to the outside courtyard area, perfect for entertaining friends and family or enjoying a local rosé in the summer sun.

Do you love terracotta floors and marble fireplaces? If so, head up to the first-floor bedroom and where you'll be seduced by these gorgeous original features. Wait, there is more! Check out the second of these spacious sun-drenched bedrooms and you'll find another gorgeously decorated floor with original geometric tiles. There is a WC on this floor for convenience.

Ascend the stairs to the second floor and you'll find the largest bedroom of the house and an enormous bathroom separated by a large landing area. The bedroom features rustic wooden beams and hardwood floors as well as a skylight. There is plenty of storage space too. The bathroom also features marvelous terracotta tiles and is quite colourful and fun. It has a WC, and not only a bathtub, but also a shower and a double vanity.
