THE DEVELOPMENT:

A small low rise development of 58 apartments nestled in the heart of a vast park inspired by Provence. This residential complex, with its contemporary architecture, is the perfect balance between nature and architecture. Here, the Mediterranean is omnipresent, developing its plant language around the residence, along the walkways and on the roof terraces where the most beautiful species of the region are grown.

The residence, immersed in a Mediterranean garden, features warm tones, in perfect harmony with the surrounding landscape.

Its location has been designed to preserve the peace of the residents by giving them the feeling of living fully in nature.

A south-facing swimming pool, sheltered from view and from the apartments, is integrated into the park for everyone's enjoyment.

There are other options of the apartments available:
