IN BRIEF

Elegant 19th-Century Maison de Maître with Limoges Heritage

Set in the heart of a charming village, this distinguished 1880 Maison de Maître was once owned by a prominent family from Limoges and retains remarkable architectural details that reflect its heritage. The property combines historic elegance, generous volumes and exceptional original features, creating a refined family residence of rare character.

Offering approximately 216 m² of living space, the house is filled with light and beautifully preserved elements including Limoges porcelain mosaics, stained-glass windows, marble fireplaces and high ceilings.

DESCRIPTION

The home is entered through original wrought-iron gates, opening onto an impressive entrance hall where Limoges porcelain wall mosaics and exquisite period floor tiles immediately establish the tone of the residence.

On either side of the hall are two elegant reception rooms, ideal for entertaining or relaxed family living. The kitchen with adjoining pantry sits to the rear of the house, alongside a shower room and a study or additional bedroom featuring a marble fireplace.

At the end of the hallway, a magnificent dining room bathed in natural light showcases beautiful stained-glass windows and opens directly onto the garden, creating a seamless connection between indoor and outdoor living.

A carved oak staircase, illuminated by another striking stained-glass window, leads to the upper floor where a generous landing provides access to four spacious bedrooms, including one with en-suite facilities, as well as a family bathroom.

The basement level offers extensive storage space including a wine cellar, ideal for collectors and perfectly suited to the region, with the vineyards of Bordeaux less than two hours away.

Outside, the property enjoys a private, flat garden adorned with mature trees, a charming brick potting shed, and a tiled terrace perfect for outdoor dining. The grounds provide ample space for the installation of a swimming pool.

A further parcel of land benefits from planning permission for new construction, presenting a valuable opportunity for additional development or guest accommodation.

Ideally positioned within walking distance of the village bakery, local shops, cafés and restaurants, the property also enjoys...
