DESCRIPTION

This elegant 18th-century Maison de Maître offers timeless French character combined with comfortable, practical living in the centre of a lively and well-served village.

This elegant 18th-century Maison de Maître combines classic French character with comfortable village living in the heart of southern France.

To the front of the property, a delightful garden with mature trees provides natural shade and a welcoming first impression — an ideal spot for morning coffee in the summer months. At the rear, a private walled garden and sunny terrace create a wonderful setting for hosting long lunches and evening dinners with friends and family in complete privacy.

Inside, the house offers generous proportions and a practical layout. The ground floor features a spacious sitting room opening directly onto the terrace and garden, a well-equipped kitchen with traditional fireplace, a study, and a shower room with laundry area.

On the first floor are four well-proportioned bedrooms. The principal bedroom benefits from its own en-suite shower room, while the remaining bedrooms share a family bathroom. A substantial attic space offers excellent additional potential — perfect for a studio, workshop, games room or further accommodation (subject to any necessary permissions).

All amenities are within easy walking distance, and the nearby Canal du Midi offers scenic walks and cycling routes. With excellent access to transport links and the coast, this is a superb permanent residence, holiday home or investment opportunity in beautiful Occitanie.
