NOTES

DESCRIPTION

This is a very beautiful house, completely restored, and located in Grury, a quiet village in the south of Burgundy. The house is currently used as a holiday home and is rented out as a gîte.

In the village there is a shop where you can buy basic necessities and there is a social centre of the commune where you can go for a coffee and get your bread and newspaper in the morning. The municipality of Grury has 577 inhabitants. It is located in a rural area, where there is a lot of cattle breeding. There is a school in the village for the little ones, the older ones take the schoolbus to the college about 10 km away. There are many hiking trails in the village and the area is also very suitable for mountain biking and sport cycling. Beautiful hills and beautiful views. Forests and grasslands.

You access the estate via a lovely private driveway under the trees to the front door. Plenty of parking in front of the house. You enter through the front door into the entrance hall. This is a beautiful, spacious entrance hall with an open ceiling that brings in light from the upper floor. In the entrance hall there is a separate toilet, a bathroom with shower and sink (connection for a washing machine and dryer) and built-in wardrobes with plenty of storage space.

From the entrance hall you enter the large kitchen. An open plan kitchen with dining..
