IN BRIEF

A well renovated, character-filled property with outstanding potential, previously run as a B&B and gîte business. As well as being a perfect family home, it also offers private ground-floor annexes—ideal for single-level living for older parents or extended family. Perfectly positioned on the edge of Swiss Normandy, an area of rolling hills and a highly sought-after tourist destination attracting walkers, mountain bikers, horse riders and kayakers, this charming home sits in a peaceful village just outside Condé-sur-Noireau. The Caen ferry port is under an hour away, making it an excellent base for visitors and a superb business opportunity.

DESCRIPTION

The property offers two spacious apartments on the ground floor both have a bedroom, living area, kitchen, bathroom and private entrance. The principle entrance to the owners accommodation is on the first floor with a porch leading into a spacious farmhouse kitchen/diner with a wood burning stove and exposed stone walls and beams. On the same floor is a generous sitting room and a further two bedrooms with an en suite. On the second floor there is a large bedroom, an en suite and a office/music room. Next to this is an attic area which could be converted into a further bedroom or living space.

Outside there is a garage/workshop and a second outbuilding ideal for garden storage/potting shed and workshop tools. There is a wooden cabin in the garden as well as an alfresco living/eating area, a small stream runs through the gardens offering an absolute haven for nature as well as the garden enthusiast.

A truly beautiful house and grounds; many more photos and information on request.
