IN BRIEF

A charming location for this country house situated down a tiny lane leading to the nearby villages of Menil ciboult and Yvrandes, with little passing traffic.

The main house has been renovated, over a number of years.

The house has oil fuelled heating and individual drainage.

The double aspect kitchen diner is a delight and south facing.

This property would suit a small family for weekends and holidays in France being an hour to the port of Caen, or a builder /handy man for a project gite and a little eventual revenue.

The separate project is to convert an existing barn to a 2 bed detached home set out in 1500 sq metres of land, a super opportunity. The individual drainage is already installed here - your could move
