IN BRIEF

This large country family home is ideal for multigenerational families or a business opportunity. The house could be divided into several living quarters as there are 2 kitchens and 3 bathrooms. The first floor offers the possibility of being fitted with a kitchen. It is luminous with large proportions. The current owners have lived in the house while developing it, and work is needed to complete it. The grounds offer great potential for equestrian use, development as a microfarm using the two shelters already existing. Stables could be further developed. Also ideally situated for cycling and fishing. There's one greenhouse with water supply allowing for a sustainable way of life at the property. The house is located under 3 km from all amenities. 10 minutes to Aire sur l'Adour and 30 minutes to Mont de Marsan. International airports of Bordeaux and...
