IN BRIEF

These character properties are situated on a very quiet road in a sleepy hamlet, less than 10 minutes drive from Montcuq. High quality renovation for both properties using only local materials (beautiful beams, exposed stone etc) and at the same time offering all modern conveniences. This property is perfect for dual family living, or as a main residence with a gite. The main house features a cosy living room with a wood-burning stove, an open kitchen leading to a private terrace, and 3 bedrooms all with en-suite facilities, of which one bedroom is on the ground floor. The spacious gite next door also has a quality finish, and offers spacious living accommodation on the ground floor, and 3 bedrooms on the first floor.
