IN BRIEF

18th century manor house with second house to renovate and two barns.

This isolated property, 5 minutes from Bergerac, will charm you with its many assets.

It is accessed via a wrought iron gate and set in 13,000 m2 of wooded grounds.

A heated saltwater swimming pool with summer kitchen and large beach await you.

The manor house has 7 bedrooms, several of which are en suite, a hall, a fitted kitchen, a large study, two lounges, a dining room, two fireplaces and a summer lounge. The attic can be converted.

The windows are fitted with secure electric shutters. The icing on the cake is the view of Château de Monbazillac from the rear bedrooms.

The house has been renovated but retains its old features such as internal doors, high ceilings and floors.

There is a small barn and a second very large barn for storage...
