IN BRIEF

Between the Mediterranean and Cévennes is nestled this magnificent 18th-century castle, offering more than 590 m² of living space. Situated in a very quiet environment with fully grown trees and singing birds, it is close to a town with all amenities.

A rare opportunity for an independent and very private part of one wing of the castle is ideal for a primary residence or a second home. The property is very charming and beautifully decorated with real style. The house has been renovated over the years with double-glazed windows and efficient modern electric heaters. Inside, you will be seduced by an extremely warm atmosphere, with large and elegant living rooms and high ceilings.
