NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Nestled within expansive grounds spanning over 30,000 meters, this 3 -bedroom house exudes charm and character. Positioned to face the south, the residence boasts a covered deck that basks in sunlight from dawn till dusk, offering a breath-taking view of the private vista encompassing the surrounding paddocks.

Enter through the formal coatroom area, ideal for shedding work boots, or step directly from the deck into the spacious open-plan entertainment areas, seamlessly blending indoor and outdoor spaces for the ultimate entertaining experience.

Nestled on the ground floor of this charming property, you'll find a delightful mix of rustic charm and modern convenience. Discover the polished hardwood floors and exposed wood beams that lend character and warmth to the space. The highlight of the ground floor is undoubtedly the impressive kitchen, which is sure to make any chef green with envy.

If you look closely at the wall behind the television you can see the lintel from the old doorway which extends into the barn. This could be a great direction to expand if you wish (subject to planning permissions). Cosy up by the fireplace in the lounge, or gather around the second wood-burning stove in the kitchen, nestled beneath a grand stone fireplace hearth. With these features in place, you'll stay toasty and warm throughout the winter months. For added convenience, a guest WC is located on the ground floor, ensuring that both comfort and functionality are at the forefront of this inviting home.
