Les Houches is a picturesque alpine village located in the Chamonix Valley in the French Alps, close to the French-Swiss border. Known for its stunning views of Mont Blanc, Les Houches is a popular destination for skiing in winter and hiking and mountaineering in summer. The village offers a more relaxed and family-friendly alternative to nearby Chamonix, while still providing access to high-quality slopes and outdoor activities.

Les Houches is well-connected by public transport, making it convenient to get around without a car. The village is served by the Mont Blanc Express train, which connects it to nearby towns like Chamonix and Saint-Gervais-les-Bains, with regular stops throughout the day. Local buses also run frequently, especially during the ski season, with routes that link Les Houches to various ski areas and neighboring villages in the Chamonix Valley. Many of these buses are free for holders of the Mont Blanc Unlimited or Chamonix Le Pass ski passes, making...
