DESCRIPTION

Enjoy the private and scenic location with easy walking access to the stunning Pyrenees directly from your doorstep. The property is close to thermal baths and just 30 minutes from excellent shopping, weekly markets, and restaurants in Prades. Transport links are excellent, with Perpignan Airport just 1 hour and 10 minutes away. Train stations at Villefranche de Conflent and Prades are 25 and 30 minutes away respectively, providing additional convenience.

The main house features a kitchen/dining area, a spacious living room, first bedroom is on the ground floor with a bathroom and a second bedroom upstairs. Every room, except the bathroom, offers beautiful views of Mount Canigou. There is a separate studio which offers a third bedroom with a mezzanine and is equipped with a powerful built-in kiln, making it ideal for use as a pottery studio. The house is powered by solar panels, an inverter, and batteries, with an electrical generator as backup. Water is supplied from a spring, maintained and filtered by the village council. With wood-burning stoves and a self-sustained fuel supply from the land, the house remains comfortable all year round.

Outside, a large stone terrace extends across the front of the house, offering panoramic views of Mount Canigou. French windows open directly onto the patio from the living room and downstairs bedroom. Additional structures include a stone tool shed and a workshop opposite the main house. Ample parking is available beside the house. The property sits on 2 hectares of land,...
