IN BRIEF

If you've dreamed of living in France this one could be for you! An incredible opportunity for multi generational living or to run a business from home. Whichever property you decide to live in there are two others ready for your family or to rent out.

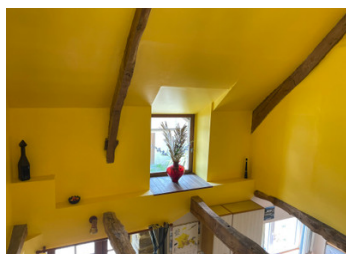

Situated in the countryside but a few minutes from the town of Ploemeur and 15 minutes to the larger town of Loudeac. The current owners have lived in the property for 20 years and have run a very successful gite business with satisfied guests returning year after year. A peaceful location in easy reach of the bars, shops and restaurants that the nearby towns have to offer.
