DESCRIPTION

You access the first part of the house up original old stone steps into the main living space (26m²), with original fireplace.

This leads to the other room at this level (27m²);

Below there is a large cellar (53m²).

Attached, there is access to an unrenovated building, comprising 3 floors. It may be possible to create a garage for a small car on the ground floor and to connect the 1st floor to the house to create further accommodation on this floor and the upper floor.
