NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Approached via a covered entrance porch, the front door opens into a welcoming entrance hall (13.75m²), immediately revealing the generous proportions found throughout the home.

Glazed double doors lead into an impressive dual-aspect living room (58.56m²), flooded with natural light and opening directly onto a terrace of approximately 40m². Elevated above the surrounding countryside, this is a wonderful space for entertaining, family gatherings or simply enjoying the far-reaching rural views.

Adjoining the living room, the fitted kitchen (17.15m²) provides generous worktop space and storage, making it both practical and well suited to everyday family life.

he ground floor also offers two comfortable bedrooms (12.42m² and 11.90m²), together with a shower room (4.54m²) and separate WC (2.25m²), allowing comfortable single-level living if desired.

Upstairs, the spacious mezzanine (16.96m²) creates a versatile second reception area, ideal as a reading room, home office or family lounge. Three further bedrooms (16.10m², 15.61m² and 13.05m²), a second shower room (5.53m²) and separate WC (2.31m²) complete the accommodation.

A full basement beneath the house provides extensive garage space, a workshop, utility room and excellent storage, while the adjoining carport offers covered parking for several vehicles, a campervan or a motorhome.

Outside, mature gardens of approximately 2,950m² surround the property, making full use of its elevated position and taking advantage of lovely panoramic countryside views. Established trees and lawns create a peaceful environment with ample space for gardening, relaxing and outdoor family life.
