DESCRIPTION

Step into a home where timeless character and modern comfort live in effortless harmony. This enchanting property offers a rare blend of historic charm and contemporary convenience, making it equally suited as a family residence or an idyllic holiday retreat.

Exposed stone walls and striking feature fireplaces bring warmth and authenticity throughout, while modern upgrades such as mains drainage and high-speed internet ensure everyday ease. Wood-fired central heating creates a welcoming atmosphere during cooler months, and a well-maintained roof provides long-term peace of mind.

Ground Floor

A welcoming entrance hall showcases an original stone sink, immediately setting the tone for this unique home. The intimate snug, centred around a cosy fireplace, opens directly onto a peaceful patio, perfect for relaxed evenings outdoors.

The generous kitchen and dining area is flooded with natural light and enjoys lovely views over the garden, creating a wonderful space for family gatherings and entertaining. The impressive main salon features a central fireplace, triple-aspect windows and beautiful natural wood flooring, enhanced by a warm, period-inspired colour palette. A guest WC completes this level.

First Floor

The accommodation is arranged across two distinct wings. The left wing offers two spacious bedrooms with high ceilings, decorative cornicing and calming décor, served by a luxurious bathroom with both a shower and a classic claw-foot bath.

The right wing provides two further generously proportioned bedrooms, equally well presented,
