IN BRIEF

This traditional house is situated in the centre of the village with parking available in front of the house and amenities within walking distance. Entering the property, you have a hallway, and a large room currently divided by a wooden and glass partition. Remove this and create an open living space of 28.5m2. A solid wooden staircase leads to the first floor with one large bedroom 25.6m2 with two windows to the front, a wooden parquet floor and exposed beams. There is plenty of room to add a shower room and fit a new staircase to the loft area where a second bedroom and shower room could be created. This space already has wooden floorboards. Although this property does not have a garden, to the rear is a cave/workshop with stone walls and mud floor and does...

DESCRIPTION

The Village of Plumieux has a small supermarket, bars, bakery, post office and hairdresser. Larger towns of Plémet and Loudeac are a short drive. The Medieval town of Josselin with its beautiful Château and Nantes Brest canal & Ploërmel with golf course & water sports at the Lac au Duc are close by. The house is well situated for all the road networks, Roscoff is 2 hours away, St Malo/Dinard and Rennes 1 hour. The Brittany coasts either North or South are only just over an hour's drive.
