DESCRIPTION

On the ground floor, the private residence has a magnificent entrance hall with a mosaic floor and an imposing staircase dominated by large stained glass windows. There is also an orangery used as a summer kitchen/living room and a large study. Another area is reserved for functional spaces such as the garage. On the first floor, a wide corridor separates the rooms overlooking the garden: 2 sitting rooms, a library, a dining room and the master bedroom. This level also includes a kitchen with a large terrace, 7 bedrooms, 3 bathrooms and a second covered terrace. The entire first floor is covered with authentic oak parquet flooring, each room has a fireplace in a different style, the ceilings are coffered or painted with floral decorations, the period furniture and chandeliers and the tapestries have all been meticulously preserved over the years.
