IN BRIEF

A divine property in a peaceful village near Vire! The renovated house, with its proximity to the village boulangerie, near the church, seems like an idyllic retreat, especially with donkeys and ponies on the land and an orchard with rich fruit-bearing trees. The spacious, luminous property, with a large double garage and an annex ready for conversion, offers great potential. Plus, the vegetable garden and lawns surrounding the property add to the rural charm, making it a perfect mix of tranquility and convenience, close to both the town of Vire and the beaches of Granville.
