IN BRIEF

In the south Loire Valley, come and discover this tufa stone property which is habitable without any work and has retained its character with exposed stone walls, beams and fireplaces.

The house has two bedrooms on one level and two others upstairs.

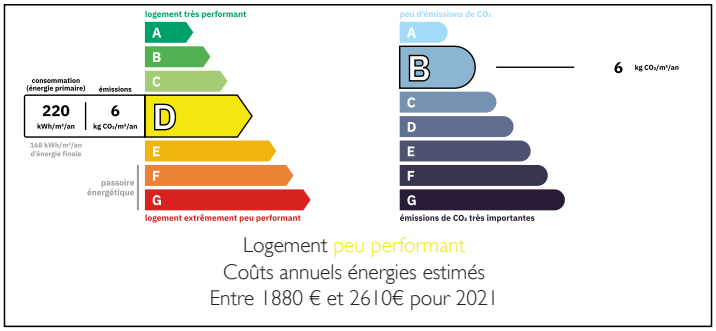

Its numerous outbuildings could be used for various activities or to create a gîte.

It has no nearby neighbours, which could also allow to use it for events or crafts activities.

It currently houses a boarding kennel for dogs and cats.

Its 6300 m2 of land is fully enclosed.
