IN BRIEF

Lovely house to renovate entirely, it's like a blank canvas! Double glazing is already in place, but the rest is up to you. You can divide the ground floor just like you want it. The upstairs is an open space now, but can be made into a large en suite bedroom.

The barn offers great possibilities as a workshop, storage, office maybe..? The garden around is flat and the last I heard, is that it is possible to buy a bit more.

DESCRIPTION

Situated near the medieval town of Uzerche sits this beautiful old stone house. Complete with huge immaculate barn and a stunning grass courtyard which catches the sun all day. Work has already been started on the house, with all the windows and doors having been replaced with triple glazed high quality oak framed wood. This lovely house has been stripped out ready for you to create your own internal layout, with many options available. Entering through the front door, you enter what could be a lovely kitchen space, its light and bright and has lovely views : 18m². From here is another room 5.6m² which would make a great utility space with door leading out onto the back garden. Off the potential kitchen is a big room 20.3m² with dual aspect windows. There is also another large open plan ground floor room 25.3m² with 2 windows and a door to the side leading out into the garden. The stairs lead from this room to the first floor, which could be converted to two bedrooms and a bathroom. Outside the house sits in beautiful gardens with stunning countryside views and an assortment of trees, including apple, plum and cherry. There is also a well and several outbuildings. It really is an oasis of peace and quite and has the potential to become an amazing home. There is water and electricity on site. If you put a caravan on...
