IN BRIEF

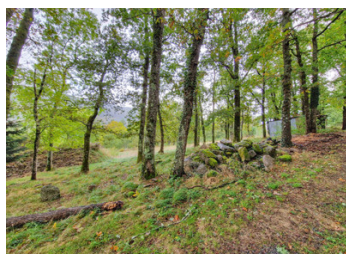

This pretty, stone cottage is situated in a peaceful hamlet between Felletin and Croze. In an elevated position, there are stunning views across open countryside. The vendor has improved many things in the house over the years, it is fully double-glazed, the roof is insulated, in addition to all external walls. Built at the beginning of the 18th Century, it retains many original features - a large granite fireplace, exposed beams and a fully functioning bread oven! The hamlet is just 15 minutes away from Felletin with its weekly market, supermarkets, shops, schools, bars and restaurants and half an hour from the beautiful tapestry town of Aubusson with its shops, bars and restaurants, tapestry museum, theatre, cinema, schools, hospital, doctors, vets and swimming pool complex. This really is a great opportunity to buy a pretty countryside property with...
