IN BRIEF

This charming maison quercynoise is a real coup de cœur. Carefully renovated to a high standard, it offers modern comfort while preserving its authentic character. In a peaceful rural setting with lovely open views and only a short drive from Lauzerte and its shops, weekly market and medical services, the house provides spacious, light-filled living with 3 bedrooms, double glazing, a heat pump and a thermodynamic water heater.

Very well insulated and economical to run, it is ideal for comfortable year-round living with no major works required.

Outside, the large mature garden features trees, shrubs and fruit trees. A garage and more than 150m² of cellars offer excellent storage, while the beautiful stone stable is perfect for creating a small gîte, workshop or studio. A welcoming property in a calm, sought-after location.
