IN BRIEF

This is a very nice and well maintained property and is tucked away in a small and very quiet hamlet yet is just a short distance to the village of St Severin with it's shops, bars/restaurants, medical centre and school. The house comprises of a downstairs entrance hall that leads into a kitchen/dining and living area, there are also two downstairs bedrooms and a shower room with toilet. Going up the stone spiral staircase one enters into a large open plan kitchen/dining and living room with a chimney, from the living room there is the third bedroom with it's en-suite shower room and toilet. There are stairs leading up to the gorgeous roof top terrace that has recently been re-sealed and tiled. From this lovely terrace one has the most stunning views across the beautiful rolling countryside and...
