IN BRIEF

Set on an exceptional plot of just under 2 hectares, this unique property combines the charm of the past with modern comfort. With parts that date back to the 16th century, it has been meticulously renovated so as to both enhance its period features and create a contemporary and practical living environment.

The interior is spacious and bright with a mezzanine above the main living area and exposed beams that give a real sense of grandeur. Outside, you are in nature with woods, gardens, meadows and water ways..

This property in great condition and is ideally situated to enjoy the calm and beauty of the countryside while offering opportunities for expansion and the development of a tourist/hospitality business.
