IN BRIEF

This spacious 260 m² house, built on a 250 m² plot, is a rare opportunity. With its 13 rooms, including 8 bedrooms, it offers an ideal living environment for large families or those looking to create a convivial living space. The 3 bathrooms and 3 WCs guarantee comfort and practicality on a daily basis.

The south-facing aspect lets in plenty of light throughout the day, while the swimming pool invites you to relax in a calm and pleasant environment. The balcony provides additional space for relaxing outdoors, perfect for summer evenings.

Built in 1800, this house has undeniable charm, but requires some refreshing work to reveal its full potential. The kitchen, in particular, could benefit from modernization to meet contemporary expectations.

Its cellar adds valuable storage space, and its

DESCRIPTION

Close to downtown and urban amenities. This rare property combines space, tranquility and potential, making it an ideal choice for those seeking to combine comfort and practicality. Its proximity to the city's green spaces and historic sites makes for a pleasant and enriching living environment. What's more, the neighborhood boasts a calm, relaxing atmosphere. The house requires a general refresh of the paintwork, but no major works. The house was rented to shared students. That's 10 rooms at around €400 rent each. This represents a gross return of €4,000 per month.
