DESCRIPTION

Magnificent 17th-Century Normandy Farmhouse near Bayeux with 7 Bedrooms, Exceptional Stone Barns & Equestrian Potential. Bessin, Calvados

Hidden at the end of a private lane in the beautiful Bessin Normandy countryside, this exceptional 17th-century farmhouse offers a rare opportunity to acquire a substantial period property combining history, character and outstanding development potential. Originally forming part of the local château estate before becoming an independent working farm, the property enjoys complete privacy while remaining within easy reach of Bayeux, the D-Day beaches and excellent transport links to Paris and the UK.

Set amidst its own pastureland and perfectly suited to equestrian use, a lifestyle business or a large family home, the estate has previously operated successfully as a 14-person gîte and offers extensive possibilities for tourism, hospitality, workshops or further residential conversion.

A private driveway leads to the property where a generous parking area welcomes visitors. Mature hedging creates privacy between the farmhouse and the agricultural buildings, ensuring the house enjoys its own peaceful setting.

The spacious entrance hall leads directly into a beautifully proportioned 31 m² farmhouse kitchen, the true heart of the home. Featuring exposed beams, a wood-burning stove, dual-aspect windows and ample dining space, it perfectly combines traditional Norman charm with modern family living. A practical utility room with shower and WC adjoins the kitchen.

Beyond lies the elegant 34 m² living room, filled with natural light from its triple-aspect windows and centred around a traditional open fireplace. Exposed beams and generous proportions create an inviting atmosphere...
