NOTES

DESCRIPTION

A long, gravelled driveway leads to the main house. The kitchen (14m²) fitted with walnut cabinets and tiled flooring, serves as a warm and inviting space leading to a living room (14.25m²) with tiled floor.

Across the hallway, a bright and airy room hosts bedroom one (15.2m²) with double glazed windows, electric blinds and built in cupboards. At the end of the hallway, there is a second spacious bedroom (14.4m²) with lino floor and a built-in wardrobe. A shower room with a washbasin (6m²) is conveniently located nearby, along with a separate WC (1m²). The wooden staircase leads to the first floor, where a third bedroom (14.2m²) features another built-in wardrobe, providing ample storage. Some of the attic space (5.2m²) has been converted to host a shower (requires finishing), a sink and WC, the room benefiting from natural light from the Velux window.

Beneath the main living areas, the basement houses a storeroom, a laundry room, and a boiler room with an oil-fired heating system and hot water tank. Adjacent to the house, a large 160m² barn offers an abundance of storage or the potential for further development.

Outside, the gardens are filled with fruit trees and a large vegetable patch. The 8x4-metre saltwater pool, surrounded by a private terrace, provides the perfect space to relax and unwind. A covered pergola in front of the house is ideal for outdoor dining, offering shade in the summer months while overlooking the peaceful surroundings.
