IN BRIEF

In the heart of the pretty wine-growing village of Rasiguères, this beautiful stone house perfectly blends character and modern comfort. Situated in a tranquil setting, it makes an ideal permanent home or holiday retreat.

The house has plenty of charm with exposed wooden beams throughout. The recently installed kitchen is open-plan to the dining area, which leads directly to the sunny, south-facing courtyard, so eating al fresco is always a convenient and tantalising option!

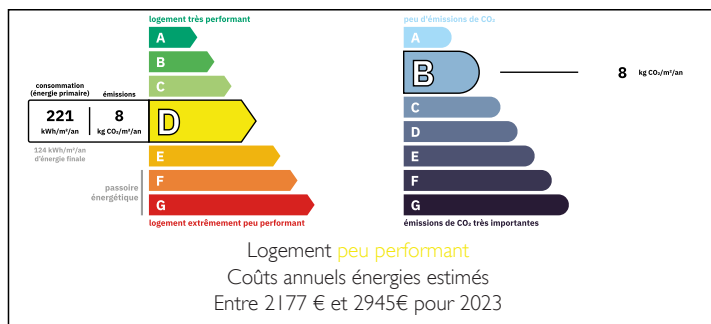

Upstairs, the stylish living room is spacious yet cosy, with its wooden floor and attractive wood-burning stove.

The large (22m²) master bedroom occupies the whole of the top floor and has lovely views of the surrounding hillsides.

Currently the house is configured to include a further 2 small bedrooms, however these could be combined to create one larger bedroom if required.
